ENERGY STAR® SCHOLARSHIP FOR RESIDENTIAL HVAC CONTRACTORS & HERS RATERS

Consumers Energy partnered with Environmental Protection Agency-recognized third-party training organizations to launch a one-year ENERGY STAR® Scholarship Pilot Program. To grow our highly-skilled trades network, Consumers Energy will provide 2022 ENERGY STAR scholarships, valued at $1,050 each, to 15 HVAC contractors and 5 RESNET® certified raters who sign up. We encourage you to spread awareness of this offering to your trades.

If you are currently building or are interested in building ENERGY STAR homes, Consumers Energy would appreciate your feedback about your experience with ENERGY STAR trades. Please click here to take a 5-minute survey.

Benefits of building ENERGY STAR certified homes:

- Qualify for higher Consumers Energy financial incentives and federal tax credits
- Build healthier and more comfortable energy-efficient homes
- Align with a growing demographic of consumers
- Gain a competitive advantage in the market
- Market your affiliation with EPA's well-recognized ENERGY STAR program
